

Committed Volunteers:

- Must commit to at least 2 days per week (at least one weekend day) and no less than 90 days.
- $150 service fee (refundable after 6 months of service) and $150 refundable radio deposit required.
- Duties may include but are not limited to:
 - Giving educational tours
 - Guiding animal experiences
 - Grounds work
 - General chores
 - Conducting research reports for monthly staff meetings
- Once approved by a senior staff member to “graduate” as a tour guide, you will then be eligible to interact with approved animals only.
- You will have privileges such as interacting with canids, involvement in meetings, learning a variety of animal husbandry skills, continuing education courses, and possible veterinary classes offered at no cost to you.
- CWWC is an AZA (Association of Zoos and Aquariums) accredited facility. As such, Committed Volunteers can earn college credit in a related field of study.

Non-Committed Volunteers:

- You are not expected to be on-site at CWWC for the full day, but you are required to provide your schedule to us in advance to have tasks lined out for you.
- $150 refundable radio deposit required.
- Tasks will vary depending on the season but may include grounds work and general chores.
- You will not be able to enter animal enclosures unless you have paid for the VIP experience.
- You will work around the animals.
- You may work with the horses, chickens, and ferrets.
- Potential to work with the foxes and New Guinea Singing dogs.
 - *Dependent on a number of variables, including management / Team Lead approval and amount of time you have volunteered with us
